

„when nature, design
and great character come together,
something unique is created“

Finest tabletop

The ethical Chef Days

rochini connects sustainability and culinary rochini offers table culture for unique worlds of culinary delight. As an upscale-niche company rochini serves the crème de la crème of high-end restaurateurs and hotels. Within rochini's circle of customers you can find outfitters of exclusive yachts, investors, designers and individual clients that have a sense for elegance and aesthetics in perfect combination with functionality.

Taylor-made conceptual solutions for your tabletop as the key to success.

Fascination as the raw material of rochini's world of products Extraordinary design does not simply comply with the zeitgeist. It defines it. All products represented by rochini are made for people who are looking for something special. They appreciate the value of local manufacturers, where products are handmade according to old traditions, but with unique and modern designs. "Our clients have two things in common with us: a sense of beauty and a longing for the perfect combination of aesthetics, elegance and functionality", explains rochini-pioneer Hannes Tiefenthaler. We choose our products according to this premise and also fulfill every customer's individual wishes. The highest quality material combined with craftsmanship at its best guarantees a pleasing outcome with unique products.

