SPECIAL EDITION

LA MALA EDUCACIÓN

Inspired by the fact that wearing a hat at the table is rude, it consists of 2 models: Chaplin, which replicates the shape of the bowler hat, iconic hat of Charles Chaplin. The Salacot bowl, meanwhile, is the hat that British explorers used in the late 19th and early 20th centuries.

A'PETIT

A'petit is born from the fusion between the French expression Bon appétit and the tightrope walker Pilippe Petit, famous for crossing the Twin Towers in New York in 1974. This tableware is perfect for petit-fours and finger food. It has 2 different positions, bringing a new way of presenting compared to the traditional tapas plates.
